

Canton Township's Village Theater at Cherry Hill strives to make its performances and facilities accessible to all our patrons. For additional information or if you have questions please contact our front of house office at 734-394-5308.

Accessible Entrances – all entrances to the theater are accessible and have automatic doors.

Accessible Seating – wheelchair and scooter-accessible seating is available for people with mobility disabilities who require the specific features of accessible seating because of their disability in both the main theater and Biltmore studio. All main theater reserved tickets for accessible seating with (up to three) companion seats will be available online, by phone and in person at the theater beginning March 15, 2012.

Note – For main theater “general admission” performances and any event in the studio (since seating is not reserved in that room,) please let the house manager know of your seating needs when you arrive at the theater for accommodation as available first-come, first-serve.

Accessible Restrooms – all restrooms at the theater are accessible.

Accessible Parking – designated accessible parking for vehicles bearing valid disability parking placards or license plates is available on a first-come, first-served basis at both the rear and front theater entrances.

Assistive listening devices – amplify and clarify sound by cutting down or eliminating ambient noise. Infrared assistive listening systems are available in the main theater. Headsets with induction neckloops are available for patrons who use hearing aids and cochlear implants with. Headsets are distributed free-of-charge on a first-come, first-served basis from the coat check in the main lobby.

Personal Responsibility Statement – The Village Theater at Cherry Hill prides itself on offering a diverse selection of art exhibition and arts entertainment for our patrons. Not all productions or art exhibitions may appeal to or be appropriate for every person or for all ages. Therefore, patrons are encouraged to familiarize themselves with the shows we offer in order to make informed decisions prior to purchasing tickets.

Children

The Village Theater and all its renters require every attendee to have a ticket. Most events are not suitable for preschool-age children. While we believe a child should be exposed to the cultural arts, we are mindful of other patrons' enjoyment as well. Therefore, we ask parental discretion in bringing small children and infants. Should a child be unable to sit quietly in his/her own seat throughout a performance, our ushers may request that the child and accompanying adult leave the theatre.
