

③ About TLC

Formed unofficially in 2007, TLC Productions was founded by Tim “T” Chanko, Linda “L” Pohl and Christopher “C” Tremblay. TLC Productions is a resident theater group of The Village Theater at Cherry Hill in Canton, Michigan. The first original work by TLC Productions was Behind the Curtain, which was completed in 2007 and staged in 2008 at

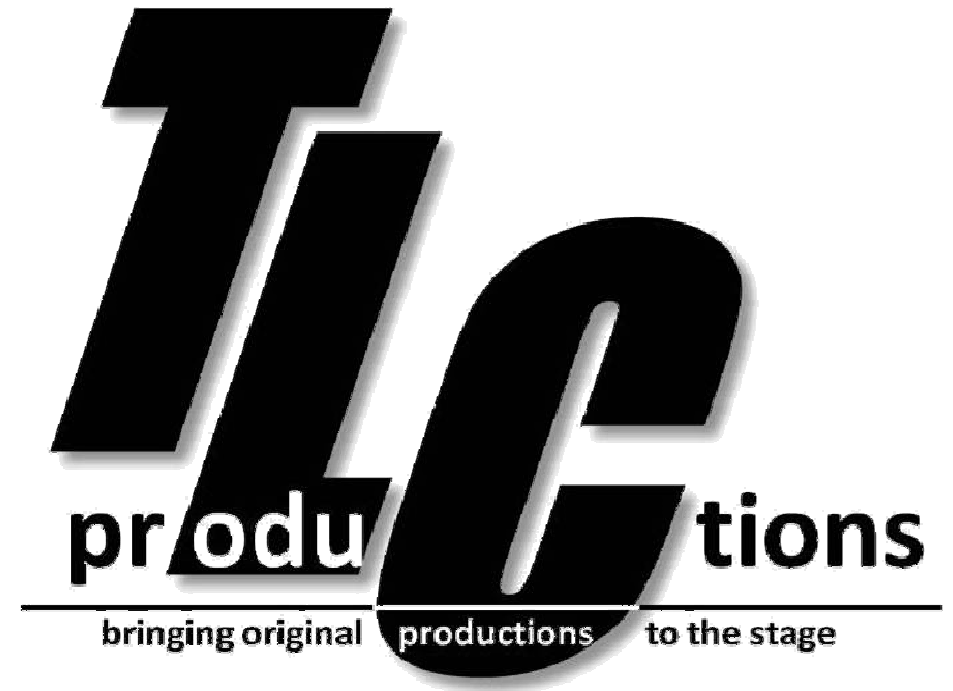

The Village Theater. The mission of TLC Productions is to bring original works to the stage. As a Canton-based arts organization, TLC Productions seeks to provide opportunities for aspiring and emerging playwrights. In addition to authoring new works, TLC Productions also hosts the bi-ennial Canton One Acts Festival at The Village Theater. Since 2008, more than 1000 theater goers have seen a TLC production. In 2011, TLC Productions became an official organization recognized in the State of Michigan.

Memberships

Spotlight Players

Community Theater Association of Michigan (CTAM)

An Introduction to TLC

Formed in 2007 by Canton, Michigan Residents
Tim Chanko, Linda Pohl and Christopher Tremblay

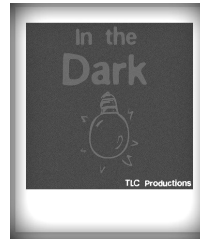

Scripts

Published Scripts

- © 2008 Behind the Curtain
- © 2009 FONTS! A Type of Musical
- © 2011 In the Dark
- © 2011 Playing Games
- © 2011 Priced to Sell

Scripts in Development

- Checkout
- Leftovers
- Subject to Interpretation

Festivals

Organized

2011 Canton One Acts Festival (Michigan)

Participated

2011 Fenton One Acts Festival (Michigan)
Honorable Mention for "In the Dark"

Services

Creation of original scripts

Staging of Canton's biennial One Acts Festival

Playwriting Workshops

Traveling Shows

Grants Received

Recipient of

2010 Partnership for the Arts and Humanities Grant

Partnerships

Barefoot Productions, Plymouth, MI [2011]

Contact Us

tlcprod.wordpress.com

tlcproductions@wowway.com